Competition begins for the 74th annual NHSFR in Gillette, WY

Gillette, WY (July 17, 2022) – It was an electrifying start to 74th annual National High School Finals Rodeo (NHSFR) in Gillette, Wyoming at the Cam-Plex Event Center. The 2022 NHSFR kicked off this morning with contestant meetings, PRCA safety seminars, and tons of activation from our amazing sponsors. The Cam-Plex Event Center is playing host to 1,716 contestants from over 44 United States, 5 Canadian Provinces, and Mexico making it the largest National High School Finals Rodeo yet. If the number of contestants hasn't captured your attention, maybe the total money awarded in scholarships, prize money, and awards will, that number rounds out to just over $718,000.

We saw a great showing in the Reined Cow Horse with South Dakota's, Dallue Lawrence, leading performance 1 with a 292.5. The Cutting saw high scores with Tennessee's Cody Gann leading the Boys Cutting with a 150 score and Ryley Wilson of British Columbia leading the Girls Cutting with a 147 score.

The Timed Event Arena did not disappoint with Lanie Corenlus of Arkansas turning and burning around the barrels with a time of 17.446. The tie down showed fast hands when Cross Fulford, FL turning in a time of 8.780. The girls stayed hot when Sage Griswold, OK turned in a 2.07 in the breakaway roping.

The Rough Stock showed grit and determination with the highest marked ride out of the three events being Utah's Kade Madsen with an 83 in the Bareback Riding. The goat tying was lightning-fast with a 7.33 by Faith Marshall, OR.
